DETAILED ACTION

This Office action is in response to the applicant's amendment filed on 8/28/03.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 25-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Lieb (US 446,871).

Lieb shows in figs. 1-4, a first fastening member I having a length, a first end, a second end, a central axis, a threaded axial recess at the first end J, and an axially extending threaded region at the second end G; and a second fastening member L having a length, a first end, a second end, a central axis, a threaded axial recess O at the first end, and axially extending threaded region at the second end K, the axially extending threaded region being engaged within the threaded axial recess of the first member (fig. 2).

In regard claims 26, 27, each of the first and the second fastening members comprises a hollow body (fig. 2). And in regard claims 28, and 29, means for capping the second A and the first F' fastening members, respectively.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 26-29 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Ridley (US 3,563,131), Banneyer (US 2,407,217), and Kurth (US 2,684,025) teach fastening members.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
